

J. Leavitt,

Providence, Aug. 20, 1842.

84 Br. Phelps.

We shall, I think, make you out a good audience, on the evening of the third Sabbath, the 18th day, of September. I shall expect you to occupy my Pulpit, during the day; as I shall expect to yours. You will take quarters, with an excellent brother of my Church, Theophilus Salisbury, No. 103, Clifford St, 103, Clifford Street. Dr. Tucker's people, mine, and more or less of brother Parker's will enter into the arrangement. Dea. Chapin, Br. Bartow, of whom we spoke, as Mr. Goodell's correspondent, and perhaps most of Br. Parker's people, who contribute, ~~to~~ will favour your object. My Pulpit is provided, for the 2nd Sabbath. So be sure to come, the third. I shall certainly expect you unless I hear without delay. Give them your strength in the evening: not radical abolition. don't leave them, &c.

Providence,
Saturday, P.M.
